All is perfect with the Mallory family. Peaceful and respected members in their town and church community, the Mallorys live a life blessed with joy.

Behind closed doors, the Mallory family struggles with substance abuse, verbal abuse, and misguided faith in the strength of man instead of faith in God.

The Mallory's son Kevan is involved in drinking and driving and causes the Mallorys to confront unresolved feelings over a tragic family death and the specter of a family lie that may destroy them forever.
