Listen to My Voice Dale O. Doud

It was a privilege to be asked to proof read this body of work given to Dale Doud over many years of waiting upon His Lord and Savior and recording the messages given to him. I was deeply moved at the close connection between Savior and son. Many of these words spoke directly to me and my situations and needs and I am sure you, too, will find personal words of love and direction for your walk with the Lord. Seek him as you take this journey with dale and his Savior Pastor Patricia Sayad Saginaw Valley Community Church. Dale Doud is married and has a precious wife, Mary, who is there for him at all times. Dale and Mary have seven children, daughter-in-laws, a son-in-law, grand children and great grand children. Dale was born again and has been filled with the Holy Spirit since 1986. He volunteered his time for four years to remodel an old school, which became a church, spending 8 to 12 hours a day to finish the church. The name of the church became New Covenant Community Church. He became a Chaplain, a Deacon, and head usher. He also took care of maintenance work plus cut a city block of grass. Dale was in the army starting in 1954. He is now going to Saginaw Valley Community Church, where the love of Jesus Christ is waiting for everyone at the door. Dale is a committed Christian who loves the Lord with his life. He is always there to love, share, and lend a helping hand for God and for others. He loves people, his neighbors, family and children, but most of all he loves speaking in tongues and sharing what God has to say. As you read and enjoy this book, know the years and hours he spent to give you God's voice and messages.
