Book 8 in the Greek Village Collection

Yanni has lived all his life in semi isolation, on the ridge at the top of the island, with only his parents and their herd of goats for company.

But when the family's donkey dies, the burden rests on him to make the journey over to the mainland to buy a new one...

Reluctantly, and fearing he will not be able to cope with the wider world, Yanni resolves to make the trip, and in doing so to face his own demons.

One hope spurs him on, and that is the chance of being reunited with Sophia, his childhood sweetheart who was sent away to the mainland at an early age, and whom he has not seen or heard from since.

Will Yanni be able to find Sophia, and will she even remember him?

Once again Sara Alexi spins a masterful yarn that delves deep into the heart of more characters from the Greek village, and exposes more of what it means to be human, and fallible...

Praise for The Unquiet Mind

I have just finished the Unquiet Mind, and again Sara has hit the nail on the head. The story line is strong with emotions and content. I love the back stories in Sara's books, they draw you into the book so much so that the jobs get put to one side. - Mr D L King, Amazon

I could feel the warmth of the sun, see the dryness of the island, hear the goats bells. It was almost as if soft music played in the background - Jo-Anne Himmelman, Goodreads

Another amazing book in the Greek Village collection. I love this whole series. It flows well and keeps you interested. Good clean book. - Loretta J Jenkins, Goodreads

If you enjoyed 'The Pact' or 'The Story Teller' by Jodi Picoult, 'Necessary Lies' by Diane Chamberlain, 'The Thread' or 'The Island' by Victoria Hislop or 'The Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Fry' by Rachel Joyce you'll love this book...
