The Village Alice Taylor

The third of Alice Taylor's unique accounts of life in the Irish countryside, and another bestseller with universal appeal. "What makes the story unique is Taylor's disarming style; she writes as though she were sitting next to you, at dusk, recounting the events of her week...Taylor has a knack for finding the universal truth in daily details."-Los Angeles Times. "The Village is the third in the trilogy, and will, I believe, be acknowledged the best."-Boston Irish Reporter. "Taylor is in love with life, in love with family, in love with people, and in love with nature, and all this affection is evident in every page of the book."-Irish Echo .
