Brice develops a crush on a girl in his 5th grade class, Cassandra, but she moves away at the end of the year. Reunited in high school, Brice and Cassandra fall in with the same crowd, and start a romance. After six years together, a terrible turn of events forces Brice to take three lives in self-defense, while unsuccessfully thwarting the murder of Cassandra. When Brice enters psychotherapy, he falls under the control of an unscrupulous psychiatrist, sending him into a harrowing descent. Brice's demons invade his soul, as he confronts a hauntingly similar situation to when he lost his beloved Cassandra. Passionate rage and deep sorrow over his loss push Brice into a dark reality. Tony P. Velasquez lives in Fresno, California. He is currently at work on the sequel to A Beckoning Silence, along with a collection of short stories.
