Prodigal (Have Bible Will Travel) (Volume 1) Andrew Hugh Moleschi

In the near future, the world is an unstable place. Weather is unpredictable, governments are corrupt with power-hungry psychopaths, and modern people seem selfish, cruel, and uncaring. As the world descends into evil and depravity, the citizens of earth hold no hope for the future. Soldier Peter Simon (PJ) comes back from his peace keeping mission in Afghanistan as a broken man. The son of a pastor and raised in faith, PJ turns out to be his father's worst nightmare. Once a devout Christian, the trauma, evil and soul-destroying experiences of war leave PJ angry, depressed, and feeling alienated from God – a man without hope or faith. PJ becomes self-absorbed, selfish, and addicted to heroin. He suffers PTSD and regularly experiences horrific nightmares. He feels like a stranger in a strange land when he returns home. Quickly, life proves too much for him. He is kicked out on onto the street, alone and hopeless, and turns to crime to support his drug habit. Can the power of prayer and a mother's love reach PJ before it's too late? Can PJ make his way home again? Where will he go next?
