The Last Days of Henry Ford Henry Dominguez

"'The Last Days of Henry Ford' was a riveting look into the end of my great-grandparents' lives and it kept me spellbound." - Edsel Ford II "...the writing is riveting.", "...an exceptional story...", "...a truly enjoyable read.", "It's a remarkable and insightful book....", "...sure to be one of the most important works on the life of Henry Ford." These are just a few of the glowing remarks from people who have read The Last Days of Henry Ford, the first book to come out with compelling new information on Henry Ford in the past 30 years. Award winning author and historian, Henry Dominguez, combed through dusty newspapers, viewed historic newsreels, and interviewed nearly four dozen eye witnesses, and weaved together in minute detail the last eighteen months of Henry Ford's live. And the story turned out to be just as fantastical as the rest of the motor magnate's life. This painstakingly chronicled history will intrigue and haunt all who read it.
