When multi-millionaire Randall Browning tried to build SC's first movie studio, he purchased SCETV's former production facility. Asbestos was soon discovered throughout and the entire business was destroyed. Browning lost everything. An intense investigation not only revealed that Browning was set-up, but that SC State government is plagued by corruption and incompetence. Experience this true story filled with cover-ups, fraud, conspiracy, murder, suicide, and an arrogant disregard by the State for the same environmental laws it's charged with enforcing. See why South Carolina politicians took money from a struggling education system that has consistently ranked last in the nation just to build the largest, most expensive ETV system in the world. Learn why educating your children or opening a business in South Carolina can be a huge risk. State officials say it's your own fault if you aren't careful!
