Raven-Symone (Robbie Readers) Amie Jane Leavitt

Audiences fell in love with Raven when she made her first TV debut on The Cosby Show in 1989. Since then, Raven has continued to appear on television shows and movies as a young actress. In 2003, she became the first African American girl to get a television show named after her. She starred in Disney Channel's That's So Raven for three years. Even though she is famous, Raven grew up just like most other teens. She went to public school and even had to do chores around the house. Now that Raven is a young adult, she plans on continuing her acting and singing career. She also dreams of one day going to cooking school in Paris. With her energy and motivation, Raven is on track to achieve all her goals.
