A Guide to Historic Maritime Greenwich Pieter van der Merwe

Greenwich, famous as the 'home' of Longitude 0° and Greenwich Mean Time, has historic royal and seafaring associations. It attracts some 2 million visitors a year to its Royal Park, the Cutty Sark, a lively old town centre, great architecture and the famous collections and buildings of the National Maritime Museum, including the Queen's House and Old Royal Observatory. This new companion, published by Addax Heritage for The National Maritime Museum, is indispensable for the general visitor. With maps and a directory to the many attractions of Greenwich, it also gives historical background and a fully illustrated guide to the National Maritime Museum complex, the Royal Naval College and Cutty Sark.
