Let It Ride (Thompson & Sons) (Volume 3) Vivian Arend

From New York Times and USA Today bestselling author VIVIAN AREND.

He's her rock in the midst of the storm

When Maggie Ward's world is torn apart by sudden tragedy, the only thing that makes her days bearable is Clay Thompson's unwavering presence. He's protective, caring, and everything she could ask for in a friend. But when she finds herself longing for more than friendship, it will take a little seduction to convince the stubborn mechanic she's ready to start living again.

She's his heart, whether he knows it or not

Clay Thompson's got the taking-care-of-others business down pat, only he's never faced this particular challenge before—the one woman he's always wanted is unexpectedly his to care for. Suddenly it's not just responsibility driving him, but a wild desire to make Maggie truly his. But following his heart might mean sacrificing the family he's held together for years.
