The first of its kind Money Management system specifically developed to help crew members to create a system of money management that they can implement with the inconsistency of pay while working freelance in the Entertainment Industry. Tailored to the crews of the Entertainment Industry, (though practical advice for anyone seeking to manage their money,) The Wealthy Crew Member is a money management book that reads easy, and explains simple steps you can take to become wealthy. Unlike most money management books, it doesn't take a degree in finance to understand. Written in simple language and keeping with the theme of the Entertainment Industry, the book is broken down into scenes, and contains some of the most sensible financial instructions the Industry has ever seen. This book speaks to the crews in a manner only a fellow crew member can speak.
