The conclusion to Imaginations, Duplicities

The last city of men has changed.

Only those who remember yesterday can see it.

There is tension in the air and violence in the corners you aren't supposed to notice.

But Gwyn, a young girl in the orchard community, has a different problem.

Her learned memories seem to be gone, even the ones that make her who she is.

She wakes every morning, startled by the man next to her and the shack of a house they live in.

Even the ordinariness of her clothing seems out of place.

There is a thirst for adventure lingering in her throat and hunger for revenge she cannot place eating away at her stomach.

And just when she thinks she has it all figured out, everything changes.

A pair of green eyes find her on the train.

A pair of green eyes she knows from somewhere.

Don't miss the exciting conclusion to Imaginations
