Ex-Navy Seal Dallas is forced to retire after a horrific injury, and the loss of his best friend. Adjusting to living a normal life again, his father offers him a career change that offers hope for the future.

The only problem is his father wants to see him settle down and get married, but Dallas is worried that with his scars, and injury, he'll never find a woman.

Melanie is recently widowed, finding out she was pregnant was the only positive thing that came from her marriage, and she doesn't regret being a widow. However, she's lonely and doesn't want to grow old alone. Resorting to online dating ads, she stumbles upon a handsome but rugged Navy SEAL.

Both have their demons from their past, will they get in the way or will this intensely passionate affair develop into something more?
