A fun summer read full of humor, adventure and survival.

Follow the ongoing adventures of Jay Roberts as he risks everything to solve the mystery of the Copper Raven legend. During the potlatch abolitions, violent raids on coastal Indian villages brought chaos and destroyed many sacred artifacts. Legend has it that a young brave was able to save some of the treasured pieces including the priceless Copper Raven statue. Fifteen year old Jay Roberts is convinced the statue lies hidden in the mountains behind his village. The problem is no one else believes him.

His only chance to right past wrongs is to search during his vision quest. Follow Jay as he struggles to piece together clues left by his ancestors. Will Jay locate the Copper Raven and be vindicated or will the perils of his journey put an end to his search... and maybe his life?

The Mystery of the Copper Raven is the second in the series by author CJ Cutayne and the sequel to Because of the Moon, celebrating how we all have different ways of being the same.
