Eyes to See: Recognizing the Lessons in Our Lives Ardeth G. Kapp

In our very busy lives, we may look but not see the things that really matter. We may listen but not hear the whisperings of the Spirit. We may think but not ponder with an eternal perspective.

A more rich and abundant life may require expanding our vision and seeing familiar things in a new way. In Eyes to See, Ardeth G. Kapp provides insights that can change the way we see ourselves and our life experiences, both the positive and the painful, to bring greater happiness and spiritual buoyancy.

"It has been said that the farther back we look, the farther ahead we can see," Sister Kapp writes. "With that thought in mind, we can be grateful for the experiences that have taught us valuable life lessons." Filled with personal stories, practical wisdom, and gospel truths, Eyes to See offers an empowering look at our own possibilities for a life well lived.
