For Mature Adult Audiences. Contain language and actions some may deem offensive. Sexually explicit content. MM In book three of the Cascade Pack: Jake Wolfenson has watched his brothers as they have found their mates. He wonders when and if he will find his. Jake has always known from a young age that he would be the Alpha of his pack. His worry is that after finding his mate, will his family still respect enough to continue to hold the job as Alpha. Landon Jax set out on a journey not knowing the end result. He could only hope it would lead him to answers for questions he has held his whole life. The pack sends out fillers for information. When they get a response, they leave to retrieve the answers but what they find could cost them the very thing they were trying to protect—their existence.
