Alisha Clark comes from a small town in Kansas. She ran away to the Big Apple, a place where no one will judge your past or even care about it. She wanted to get away from locals knowing your business and then turning against you due to your past. She is nervous about her decision to leave Kansas, but within days of arriving she secures a job and a place to live. Everything falls into place for Alisha until she meets her boss. Carl Reid immediately becomes obsessed with her curves and starts toying with her mind. His obsession starts to turn to possession as he leads her into a world of wealth and power.

A world that a girl from a small town in Kansas never knew existed, until now.
