A Mother's Love Maggie Ford

Growing up in London's tough East End, Sara Porter has had to learn to take care of herself. Her mother, bitter from a damaging relationship, feels no love for her and resents her maternal responsibilities. And Sara's new step-father doesn't return the admiration she has for him. Sara shuts herself away from the world, vowing not to let anyone in. Focusing on her career as a businesswoman, she has no need for family, or for romance—that is, until she meets Jonathan, and finally learns the meaning of family... This book was previously published under the title The Angry Heart.
