Book 1 Cat Sleuth :

There's been a murder in the quiet village of Little Hamilton. Patricia Lansbury runs her "Feline Retirement Home" there for abandoned cats, where she expected to have a quiet retirement. Unfortunately for Pattie, events have drawn her into the police investigation, and find herself entangled in the biggest mystery Little Hamilton has ever seen.

With the unexpected help of her cats, Pattie must work with the police to uncover the truth about the murder. But when all she wants is a quiet cup of tea, how can Pattie unravel the mystery when the truth seems so elusive...?

Book 2 Murder and a Song:

The peace and quiet of Little Hamilton is about to be shattered. June is the month of the enormous YorkFest music festival, an annual excuse for camping, partying, merriment ... and even murder.

When a man is murdered in their tent, all evidence points towards his girlfriend as the culprit. She pleads innocence, and calls on Patricia Lansbury, the village's resident sleuth, to find the real murderer. But as the mystery unfolds, Pattie is met with more questions than she is answers. For example, how is a drunken farmer involved? Could there be one – or more – murders in the heaving festival campsite? And why does Pattie's gut tell her that the farmer's cat is the key to solving the whole mystery?

Book 3: The Escapee and The case of the Cat-Napper

(This book contains two short stories in one)

Patricia Lansbury, consulting detective, has solved plenty of crimes in the Yorkshire village of Little Hamilton. So has her estranged son, Detective Constable Andrew Lansbury, who was forced to leave the village in disgrace following a scandal. Now the past has come back to haunt Pattie. An escaped prisoner that her son once put away is out for violent justice, and now Pattie has to solve her most personal crime yet. But how are a suspicious homeless person, a multi-millionaire entrepreneur, and a houseful of cats connected to the mystery? And can Pattie resolve the matter before the sins of the son catch up with the mother?

Pattie Lansbury, amateur sleuth owner of Yorkshire's only Feline Retirement Home, has now established a much-needed veterinary practice in her sleepy village of Little Hamilton. Others might be suspicious of her secret investor, but Pattie is more concerned about the rumours of stolen cats spreading across the English countryside. As the cat-nappers take things to the next level, Pattie is drawn into a mystery far more personal than she would ever have imagined. Who is stealing Little Hamilton's furry residents, and why? And how is it connected to the secret investor and some of Pattie's shiftest customers? It will take one determined consulting detective to find out, along with some kitties with very special skills!

Book 4 Murder Most Familiar:

All seems quiet in Little Hamilton. Pattie is making a success of her Feline Retirement Home, as well as her new Veterinary practice. Thankfully there's not a crime in sight for the consulting detective to solve.

That is, until Matthew Conrad, the village's local entrepreneur and global media mogul, receives death threats just days before the launch of his new TV series. Worse, the letters seem to come from somebody in Little Hamilton. In a very small community, the chance that Pattie knows the suspect is high, putting her at greater risk than ever. But what ancient secrets is Conrad's countryside cottage hiding? What is the curse of the golden lion? And at what point should Pattie stop getting involved in the complex, mysterious affairs of others and concentrate on her own desires...?
