What Tomorrow May Bring: A Tale of Urban Romance De'Wayne Simpson

Have you ever been forced to deal with a situation in one of your relationships and wondered if anyone else had ever been through the same thing? If so, were you curious as to how he or she handled that same situation? Have you ever noticed how often you understand more about relationships through witnessing events as opposed to experiencing them? In this story, you can follow the relationships of four interesting individuals. Each of these men is involved in a distinct form of relationship, and none of them can see what their next steps should be. All but one of them are from the DC metropolitan area, and they each have similar backgrounds. In this story, two of the men are single, and two are married. The married men have to deal with situations such as kids being brought into new relationships and severely high levels of insecurity. The single men are forced to deal with issues such as commitment anxiety and children being born out of wedlock. Through it all, they stick together and help each other try to figure out what tomorrow will bring.
