What About Monday?: Problems that Impede the Church's Impact Larry Lane

What About Monday? is a creative expose' on the American evangelical Church's struggle to impact her surrounding community with the Kingdom of God. It makes insightful observations into church life drawn from the author's years of pastoral experience, and sheds light on misunderstood Scriptures that have contributed in the Church's missional ineffectiveness. Using popular movies to illustrate truth, What about Monday? is both entertaining and instructive. It raises questions for Christian leaders and all Christ-followers to consider in the pursuit of cultural relevance and community impact.
