Mercy is God's refusal to accept circumstances and limits placed upon us by ourselves and others. One of our greatest challenges working with abused, abandoned and neglected children is to change their image of themselves. The image is the result of labels and conditions they have experienced. This booklet takes a fresh look at the definition of Mercy as a "force" that repels the negative images and conditions of our lives. Mercy is when God says NO to the life defining struggles we face. God, in return, challenges each of us to say "NO" to the life defining struggles of others.
