This is the story of the love of a wife for a husband. The Haiku were originally written by my Mother for my Father, who recently passed away. They tell of her love for him and also their shared interests in Eastern philosophy and Nature. These are the values which echo throughout my childhood and which led me to collaborate with my Mother in visualising her poetry. This project is a Mother and Son artistic collaboration. The combining across generations of artistic sensibilities in words and photographs to celebrate our family.
