This is a Steamy First Time College Cowboy Romance with a Surprise Bonus Inside!

Emma is your average college girl, leading an average city life.

In a fit of rebellion against her strict parents, she accepts the scholarship offered by a small Texas college, eager to put as much distance between her and her family as possible. She knows she needs to learn to live and home is not the place for that.

Every life change can be difficult, but when the change you thought would bring you freedom throws you into the lion's den, you have no choice but to put up a fight.

Especially if you are a perfectionist, like Emma.

It turns out that love is tougher than she imagined. Caught between the first man who ever touched her and her dreams of becoming a doctor, Emma has to make a tough choice.

Will she be able to give up Ridley? Or will she chose to leave her the future she had dreamed for herself behind?

The price of happiness is high... Can Emma afford it?
