Why do they kill? What joy do serial killers get from murdering other people in such a brutal manner? Worse still, many of these serial killers end up murdering innocent children? What traumatic experience in their life made them so emotionally stunted that they enjoy the death of such pure innocence?

Hundreds of people have tried to study the minds of these psychopaths in an attempt to understand what fueled their hatred against their victims. The various reasons that motivate murderers to commit such heinous crimes, range from the sense of power to some trauma that they went through as a child.

In this book, we delve deep into the lives and crimes of such psychopaths in an attempt to understand the method in their madness. These psychopaths have become renowned for their gruesome crimes and the nonchalance with which they committed these crimes, which would leave any normal human being disgusted and full of remorse.
