Subic Bay: The Nuclear Jungle is an erotic military adventure detailing the exploits of Alpha Company, Marine Corps Security Forces, Subic Bay, Philippines. In 1986, Subic Bay was the most strategic military base in the Western Pacific. Alpha Company Marines were tasked with a diversified mission in Subic Bay's defense, including perimeter checkpoints; entry/exit control; jungle patrols; and air/land/water Quick Reaction Forces. Alpha Company also guarded Subic Bay's dirty secret: nuclear arsenals in port. Through a people's revolution, labor strike; espionage; terrorism and communism, Alpha Company was on the cutting edge of defense for the most vital assets in the Navy's 7th Fleet. For their rewards, young, aggressive oversexed Marines were unleashed upon the base town of Olongapo City, where they partied like rock stars in the Sin City of WESTPAC. But over-indulging themselves with thousands of Filipinas wasn't enough for Alpha Company. They also took Navy 'gals,' Navy daughters, Navy girlfriends and Navy wives too, even a Navy officer. Fly Girls from in-country Air Force Bases were also prime targets for eager Marines with dirty minds. Car crashes, property destruction, pregnancies, adultery, divorces, bar brawls and NIS investigations were prevalent within their domain. When their tours in the Philippine Islands were all over after 15 months, a path of destruction lied in their wake, but Subic Bay shined on!
