Left Together (Left Behind) (Volume 2) D.J. Pierson

The beginning of a new relationship is one of the most exciting times for a new couple. First dates. The butterflies. Forgetting the rest of the world is carrying on around them. Falling in love. These are all things Kacie Foster and Evan Pierce are looking forward to. Unfortunately, that's not what's waiting for them. The pain of losing her grandmother is starting to dull, even if it will always be there, with each passing day that Kacie and Evan are together. Realizing his brother's death is no fault of his own, Evan accepts he'll never understand why it happened, as long as he has Kacie. Everything seems to be going their way. Life is, for a change, perfect. Without warning, old obstacles resurface and new ones are revealed, sending the two into a downward spiral. Lines will be crossed. Hearts will be broken. Just when it appears as though they may be able to pull through, a force beyond anyone's control steps in, threatening to tear them apart forever. Is it too much to ask for this new couple, trying to find their way in the world, to be left together?
