At Least Once: A Novel (While We Wait) (Volume 1) D. M. Cuffie

Breeze Monsoon is a poster child for contentment. Her aunt and best friend have another “C” word in mind: complacent. Unconvinced that Breeze is “content” with her nonexistent love life, the two take matters into their own hands with getting her love life right, at least once. An unexpected opportunity presents itself, after Breeze agrees to an unusual request and the pair enroll her in a class, specializing in “relationship repair” for Christian single women. Through encouragement, accountability, laughs, and serious girl talk, Breeze and seven other women take an eight month journey through their season of preparation rediscovering themselves, reclaiming their joy, and redefining the petitions of their heart.
