Haaretz e-books - Guide for the Perplexed: The Fantastically Strange History of Jewish Holidays Elon Gilad

Like the Jewish religion itself, the Jewish holidays have developed over the time, evolving from generation to generation and adapting to the changing circumstances. Rather than retelling biblical, Talmudic and rabbinic narratives, Haaretz presents here a collection of articles recounting the ancient history and morphing of the modern-day Jewish holidays. Written from a playful but always loving perspective, this book is intended to engender a more mindful appreciation of our Jewish traditions, of the Jewish religion and of the Jewish people.
