This is an autobiographical spiritual journey of a former Mormon Missionary growing up in the heart of Utah that decided to leave the Church due to doctrinal discrepancies and sought faith as a Born-Again Christian. When he left the Mormon Church, his family and friends turned their back on him and he became a social parasite. This is his spiritual adventure to seek truth; no matter what the cost. It also offers unique insight into his personal life through hurricane Katrina, the miscarriage of his first child, life in the Air Force and overall drive to live out his faith.
