The Man...Gunnar Sheppard's father left him and his mom when he was only a month old. Now that his mom has married, he has a whole new family in his life, including two biological half-sisters, and he's hoping his heritage of a cheating, no-good father, and a box of pictures his stepmother gave him after he died can be put to rest. That's where the problems begin.

The Woman...Emma Drake has gone through some hard times. She's been stalked, cheated on, and fired. Returning home to her sister is both a balm and a burden. Her history with bikers isn't stellar and when she meets Gunnar, the sizzling, sexy biker in the parking lot, she's more than a bit unsure of him.

The Problems...Gunnar and Emma recognize the spark between them instantly, but both have battles to fight that could harm the other. They need to find a way to keep the growing attraction strong and battle the events that keep forcing their way between them. Both are determined to rid themselves of the ugliness of the past. But finding a way to do that and not harm each other in the process seems too much to handle.
