Roman Gabriel is the North Pack activist and troublemaker. He fights for changes in how Pack Members are treated and largely gets away with it, because he is Alpha Gregory's cousin. That is, until he speaks up one time too many and earns himself a date with the killing field. He thinks his activist days are done for, until the Pack Beta Wilson steps in and saves him, allowing him to run straight into the arms of his true mate, William Rue. But will the paranoid and insane Alpha Gregory allow him to live his life in peace?

William Rue has watched his brothers and best friend find their mates, and is beginning to think fate is playing a cruel joke on him. Thanks to some information from the Falk brothers, he learns the identity of his mate, the beautiful Roman Gabriel. But first, he must save him from the clutches of the North Pack. Can Roman and Will find the happily ever after they've been craving?

These two lovers will find themselves lost and then found.
