"...You're not the only one with secrets—with people you care about who need to be protected."

Sophia made the choice to put the needs and safety of others before her own. But with the added pressure of protecting the Berkowitzes, Sophia's survival in Nazi Germany has become more perilous than ever. Though she finds companionship with a handsome war photographer, her secrets threaten to destroy everything and everyone she holds dear.

But Sophia soon learns that she is not the only one carrying a dangerous secret. No one in Germany is who they say they are, and those who have nothing to hide are quick to betray those that do. When the motivations of others collide with her own, Sophia must adapt to survive, learning she can trust no one but herself in Hitler's Germany.
