The Country Of Heart, Eye, And Hand Robert B. Weeden

The Country Of Heart, Eye, And Hand has the kind of no-holds-barred engagement with nature the times so urgently and universally demand. "Soak it up with every sense a'tingle," these essays tell us. "Nature, as fact and metaphor, is an Olympic challenge to our intelligence," Weeden's words assert. "Throw your body into the crucial work of restoring nature's health," the essays ask, "whatever your talents and wherever you live." To come into our world in this wholehearted way, is to come into love.
