MIRRORED -- What if the one man you want to find wants you dead? 15 year old Drake Patterson knows nothing about his family when an innocent brush with the law gets him banished to his grandmother's house for the summer. Life in the country with Grandma proves pretty dull, but not for long. Drake quickly learns both his father and grandfather disappeared shortly after his third birthday. Why did the two men leave? Where did they go? Will they ever return? His quest to fill in the blanks from his past leads to the discovery of a secret room behind Grandma's bookshelves. When Drake and his best friend Gwen step inside, the room spins them into Mirrored: a land locked in the iron fist of Commander Ketch. Soon, Gwen races through the woods of Mirrored mere steps ahead of the hit squad Ketch dispatches to find her while a second troop escorts a chained Drake to prison. They must both escape, find each other then locate the homeward portal before Ketch blocks their path forever. Along the way, Drake learns about his family's strange connection to Mirrored and why he must never return. The exciting first installment in the trilogy THE LAST PRIME, Mirrored proves that family reunions can be lethal.
