Waking Up Dead: My Undead Life 1 Delilah Vane

It's fifteen-year-old Angel's first day as a vampire...

Angel Rose Channing didn't ask for the added drama of being turned into a teenage vampire. School was hard enough when she didn't have to avoid the sun. She used to be able to make a mistake without somebody dying, but now she has to watch her every move as she comes to understand what it means to wake up dead.

Waking Up Dead is the first episode in the larger young adult story, My Undead Life. This 2,700 word short story contains a bit of scare factor that may be inappropriate for readers under age 12...because it's about a vampire, for goodness sake.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Delilah Vane likes to make stuff up. Vampires, fairies, demons, demigods and other supernatural beings especially enchant her. Writing fiction satisfies Ms. Vane's creature-tooth, allowing her to explore the limitless possibilities that come from combining human struggles with the powers of monsters and supers.

In many ways, Ms. Vane is just like you. She's lived in the same state her whole life, and still sees her parents every week. She (usually) sleeps at night and can be found clickety-clacking at the keyboard through the day.
