You'll Never See Me Again Aisha Myles

You'll Never See Me Again explores three women's quests for the importance of love as a reason to live and an excuse for dying. Nashay Elizabeth Ann Perkins is a thirty-something living in Atlanta. She has a job she hates. She is slightly overweight and considers herself cute, but far from the supermodel type. Nashay has just gone through the most tragic break-up of her life. "Toni" Janae Anthony Brown is a lovesick bride in her bridal chambers preparing desperately for her pending nuptials. Toni feels she has made the wrong decision. With this decision looming over her head, she realizes she hasn't been living her life. Nia Johnson is first and foremost Jaden's mother, but she is lonely. Nashay gives her the number to a local singles' chatline. Nia meets several guys, but only one captures her heart, while another captures her freedom.
